Pure and simple

We know it's the simple things that make life worth living: watching a movie with the kids in the living room, sharing stories around the dining table, or enjoying a BBQ with friends outdoors. The Geneva is designed to help you embrace the joys of a simple life, with an elegant design that features clean lines and a natural flow between spaces. The formal living room opens naturally onto the alfresco area, so you have a secluded space to entertain guests while the kids play in the family room nearby. And when it's time to rest, everyone in the family can enjoy peace and quiet, with each bedroom buffered by neutral zones designed to minimise noise. It's a home where less really is more.
